

Mexican Student Scholarship

This scholarship is for students from Mexico in 2018. Students will receive a $450 scholarship for full time courses- normal academic fees and book deposits apply. To qualify, students must have a passport from Mexico and to maintain the scholarship students must pay for their classes on time, have good attendance, and have not been on academic probation.

Semi-Intensive English Program

(20 hours per week):

$1085 → $635/session

Intensive English Program

(24 hours per week):

$1285 → $835/session

$125 discount for Individual Courses: Integrated English, Standardized Test Preparation, Read & Writing, Conversation & Pronunciation Classes.

This discount cannot be combined with the $300 per month discount on the Intensive program when students pay for 3 sessions or more.

Students are not eligible for a further discount if they currently hold a scholarship with Conversa or from an outside source (ex. SACM)

All Semi-Intensive students are required to pay $49 per session in academic fees.

All Intensive students are required to pay $58 per session in academic fees.

A one-time fully-refundable $150-250 book deposit is due upon enrollment.

To qualify, students must submit a full application (with $100 application fee) to Conversa, including a copy of their passport.
