

Religious Scholarship Program

This scholarship is for people working in Religious and Missionary organizations in 2019. Students will receive a $450 scholarship for full time courses- normal academic fees and book deposits apply. To qualify, students must have a passport from one of these countries as well as official documentation that they are part of a religious order. To maintain the scholarship students must pay for their classes on time, have good attendance, and have not been on academic probation.

Semi-Intensive English Program

(20 hours per week):

$1085 → $635/session

Intensive English Program

(24 hours per week):

$1285 → $835/session

$125 discount for Individual Courses: Integrated English, Standardized Test Preparation, Read & Writing, Conversation & Pronunciation Classes.

This discount cannot be combined with the $300 per month discount on the Intensive program when students pay for 3 sessions or more.

All tuition and fees must be paid on or before the first day of class. If not, the scholarship does not apply.
