

Refugee Discount Program

From May to December, 2019

This discount is for students from Cuba, Libya, Somalia, Iran, Yemen, Syria and Sudan during the months of May to December, 2019. Students will receive a discount for full time courses- normal academic fees and book deposits apply. To qualify, students must have a passport from one of these seven countries and to maintain the discount students must pay for their classes on time, have good attendance, and have not been on academic probation.

Semi-Intensive English Program

(20 hours per week):

$1085 → $890/session

Intensive English Program

(24 hours per week):

$1285 → $935/session

$50 discount for Individual Courses: Integrated English, Standardized Test Preparation, Read & Writing, Conversation & Pronunciation Classes.

This discount cannot be combined with the $300 per month discount on the Intensive program when students pay for 3 sessions or more.

Students are not eligible for a further discount if they currently have a discount with Conversa or have a scholarship from an outside source (ex. SACM)

All Semi-Intensive students are required to pay $49 per session in academic fees.

All Intensive students are required to pay $58 per session in academic fees.

A one-time fully-refundable $50 per book deposit is due upon enrollment.